BIG THANKS

RISE & SHINE BREAKFAST

Wednesday,
November 6, 2013

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cumberland & Salem Counties will be holding its annual Rise & Shine Breakfast at the Centerton Country Club in Pittsgrove, NJ. This event will begin with a Mix & Mingle at 7:30am – 8:00am. Starting promptly at 8:00am is our one-hour program. During this time, guests will learn about the positive impact Big Brothers Big Sisters, professionally supported one-to-one mentoring relationships is having in our communities. Every day at Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cumberland & Salem Counties, we are inspired by the children, volunteers and families that we meet and by the power of one-to-one mentoring relationships. All are invited to share in this inspiration by joining us at this Fundraising Event. Start your day with an uplifting video and testimonials from volunteers and children that will motivate and excite you. Admission is free and the continental breakfast and inspiration are on us!

Meet Board Member, Tim Chew

Meet Tim Chew, the most recent addition to our Board of Trustees. Tim was born and raised in South Jersey. He left South Jersey to study economics and global payment trends at the South American Global Trade Institute at the University of Miami and at (PIER) the Penn Institute for Economic Research at the University of Pennsylvania. Tim's background includes over 11 years working in the payments industry, with the last 8 years as founder and president of the BC Processing group of companies. BC Processing was recently named the 11th fastest growing business in the region by SJ Biz magazine.

Previously, Tim sat on the National Payments Committee for US Bank Corp and served as special advisor to the Vineland Redevelopment Project as well as the South Jersey Merchant Association and NJ State Chamber of Commerce. He serves on the national advisory board for Elavon global payments the 5th largest credit and debit processing company in the World

Tim is a member of the Cumberland Cape YMCA Board of Directors and is a member of The CEO Group. In his spare time Tim enjoys playing golf and watching movies.

Tim is also a Big Brother and finds it "satisfying to provide young people an opportunity to see what is out in the world outside of what they ordinarily experience."

Cumberland County College & Local Churches are Big Help with Little's School Supplies

Little Brothers and Little Sisters from Cumberland & Salem Counties are going back to school with new book bags and supplies thanks to the generosity of local churches and Phi Theta Kappa of Cumberland County College.

Ed Morvay of the Thrivent Community within Lutheran Church of the Redeemer worked with Mt. Pisgah Methodist Church, Our Lady of Pompeii and Word of Life churches from Vineland to donate the book bags and school supplies. Working together, volunteers from the churches and Big Brothers Big Sisters prepared the supplies for our Little Brothers and Little Sisters. The Rho Gamma chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Cumberland County College donated book bags for the Little Brothers and Little Sisters of Cumberland & Salem Counties. Each semester Phi Theta Kappa makes donations to a selected organization. This past spring semester Phi Theta Kappa advisor, Sharon Kewish, placed bins outside of her office for members to drop off book bags and school supplies for Big Brothers Big Sisters.

BIG Thanks to Susquehanna Bank

Susquehanna Bank granted Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cumberland & Salem Counties $500 to help the agency reach more children. On July 12th, Tracy Renner (Branch Relationship Manager & Assistant Vice President) arrived at the local agency along with her colleague Peggy Ramos to present the check. This award was made possible by the great work of Sarah Gould a Volunteer Grant Writer for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cumberland & Salem Counties. Sarah's grant proposal was submitted to Susquehanna and shortly after, the agency received a phone call from the local bank expressing excitement to grant the funds.
